Aug 19, 1904.

My dear Sister Edith:

Pardon my delay
in ^{sending} congratulations

Sister, But perhaps you can imagine my

joy when I read

Mabels letter telling

of our big sisters marriage

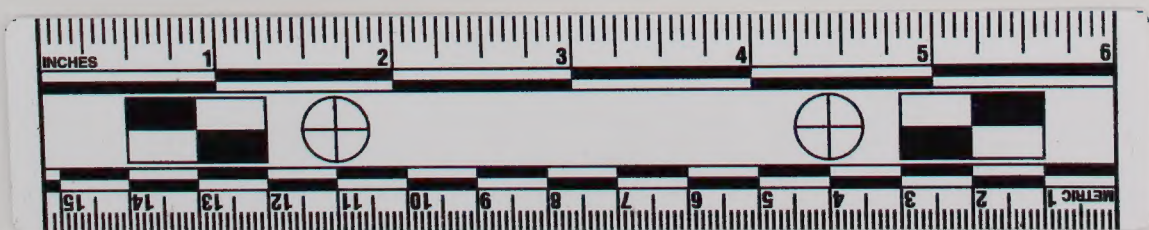

I wish you my dear
sister all the happiness, health, and prosperity in writing this as I have used the word I when Phas requested me to write for us both.

We have been moving and we are not settled yet the people we were with moved and we came with them here on Wednesday. 124
Derry St.

I will now close hoping to hear from you soon. if Mabel has not answered my letter tell her to do so soon please. Your loving sister Jennie.
(Love & kisses.)

in the world you certainly deserve a bountiful portion of same How I would like to see you and your husband making tea in your cottage. I at least want a description of my new Brother and both
of your pictures.
Are ^{you} coming fast dear
soon?
I am afraid I
have been a little selfish
